

Blyth Artisan's market - 14 May 2016 and every second Saturday of the month thereafter. £10 a market

In conjunction with Keel Row shopping Centre, Blyth we will be bringing an artisans market to Blyth once a month. There will be space available both on the market place with your own stall and also limited space inside the Keel Row for those of you who don't own a stall or just prefer the indoors.

We will be limiting the types of traders so that there is little duplication and will be appealing to the types of customer who enjoy farmers', food and craft markets. The market whilst being self-contained in or near the Keel Row shopping centre will also be part of Blyth's general Saturday market.

Once traders have signed up we will be heavily advertising the market to residents of Blyth (the largest town in Northumberland) as well as the nearby population centres.

To make the offer as attractive as possible we will be offering three markets for £30. This will either be for your own stall and table outside or one table inside the Keel Row.
